

Japanese Hops
(Humulus japonicus)

- Annual vine
- Leaves opposite, toothed, palmate, usually with 5 lobes
- Rough prickly hairs on leaves and stems
- Male and female flowers in panicles on separate plants
- Found occasionally along creek sides in Monroe County