

Kudzu (Pueraria montana)

- Woody deciduous climbing vine
- Leaves alternate, with three leaflets, each up to 4" across
- Late summer flowers 1.5" long, purple, fragrant and borne in long hanging clusters
- Fruits are brown, hairy pods with constrictions
- Invades forest edges and open areas throughout Monroe County